

Celebration of International women's Day- Work for Equality's one of the main objectives is to enhance health status of the marginalized community women. To reach up to the objective we had organized information session on "importance of physical and mental health of the women" for the Badhalwadi women in Maval block. Nearly 60 women's had taken advantage of the program. This program had organized with the help of Local governance of Badhalwadi. After informative session we had organized cultural program for the children and fun games for the village women.

Posters Exhibition for the women on reproductive health and Rights – for the year 2011-12 & 2013 we had organized (2 times) two days stall and poster exhibition on women's reproductive health and rights. This stall was sponsored by Rotary club of MIDC Talegaon Dabhade. The main objective of exhibition was, to breakup taboo of women's reproductive health and enhances awareness among society regarding women's health issues. Approximately thousands of women's as well as men had given visit to the exhibition. Numbers of visitors had given best wishes as well as their comments and the necessities of such types of experiment for enhance women's health status.

NGO Selection in various Companies / Government department - Work for Equality has been selected by Gabriel Company Pvt. Ltd – Chakan and Commissioner Office –Pune as a member of women's Grievance comity. Main role of NGO will be participating in meetings and to understand various cases of sexual violence against women and provide them guidance on how to deal with such incidence.

Inauguration of Study class - to provide good atmosphere for the community children for educational purpose Work for equality took house on rent for study class. For the inauguration respected Kulanadi came from England. All community people has came for the inauguration

Conduct Study class for the community children- it was first initiative by NGO to start study class for the community children to enhance their educational performance. Fifteen children are taking benefit of the study class. It helped to increase educational interest of children as well as their grade in exams. All the study class children has got good marks in exam.

Organized summer camp for the marginalized community children and youth

– We had organized one day summer camp for the beneficiaries of Sonzari community children and young girls. All Gammat Shala beneficiaries were participated in summer camp. They played various fun games and played in Park the whole day. It was great fun for them.

Aid for health promotion for the Sonzari community member – Sonzari community member's health status is very poor. One of the community members (Laxman Saponishi) is a patient of Diabetic. He had a leg injury and due to poor economical status he was not able to get proper treatment in hospital. Doctor gave him warning due to lack of treatment his leg could be removing. Work for Equality done advocacy with hospital and got him free treatment. For the medicine purpose NGO helped him to get

Health camp for Sonzari community – We had organized Health camp for the Sonzari community. Dr. Manudhune from Indori had provided his service. This camp was organized with the collaboration of Primary Health center Talegaon.

Around 53 people get benefit of the camp.

Celebration of world AIDS Day (2011-2012) – On the occasion of World AIDS Day, we had organized one day workshop on HIV/AIDS for the Indrayani college student in Talegaon Dabhade. This program was sponsored by Hindustan Electricity Company. Nearly 150 students took advantage of the session. Mrs. Meghana Marathe , welfare department from Forbes Marshal had invited as a resource person. She emphasized students to follow ABC (Absence, Be faithful and use of condom) to protect themselves by sexual transmitted infection.

For the participation of students to understand their views about HIV/AIDS, we had organized various competitions likes essay writing, drawing and speech competition. The winners had given attractive prizes.

Celebration of world AIDS Day with Top tech company’s employees (2012-2013)- women are the most victim of HIV due to lack of awareness and right information. To understand the thing, work for Equality has organized awareness workshop for Top tech company’s women employees. This program has done with the collaboration of Rotary Club of Talegaon. Around 200 women got benefit of the program

Youth For Human Rights training program (2011-2012)– Work for Equality with association of YHRI international conducted human rights training program with Lohagaon boys hostels, Ambi school, Shivaji Vidyalaya – Naulakh umbrae, school no 3. Total 240 students got opportunity to understand about Human Rights. The outcome of this training program was to formed one youth group from school no 3 and performed street play on right to education for girls.

2012-2013- after understanding the importance of program, for the year 2012-2013 work for Equality has conducted youth for human rights program for 10 schools/colleges. Some of the youth group came forward and spread awareness amongst society in various issue like no to crackers. Women status in our society etc... through the program we reached up to the 1800 students.

Announce “Daughter’s of Savitri” award for the women – Work for Equality has announce Daughter’s of Savitri award from the year 2012. This award will be given to the women who have done amazing work in social and educational field. The main objective behind to start the award has to enhance women’s status in society. This year’s award has given to the two girls who have passed PSI exam in a difficult situation.

Organized two health camp for community women – NGO had organized two health camp for the community women with in their community and one is in General Hospital Talegaon Dabhade. Approximately 150 women got benefit of health checkup during the camp