

Work for equality - "WE" - A step towards to get equal opportunities

Monthly Newsletter - December 2016

Work for Equality is a registered NGO working for the benefits of the marginalized communities in the areas of education, health, livelihood & Gender

Achievement of this month: Maya & Naina are staying on footpath with their parents in Pune, Maya dropout from school due to parent's migration, we helped Maya's parents to reenroll Maya in Z.P. school and Naina get admission in PRERANA center

Celebration of International Human Rights Day with tribal Ashram school children and provide them Human Rights booklet to the children to increase their knowledge about our rights and responsibility.

Celebration of HIV/AIDS day with girls youth group and parents associated with Janakidevi Bajaj trust. The workshops emphasized on more focus on transparent and friendly relationship with parents and children and responsible behavior to prevent HIV/AIDS

Health checkup camp: for PRERANA children and convinced seven parents to get further medical treatment

More details please visit: www.workforequality.org / facebook.com/workforequality

This month we provided school shoes to the needy children to motivate them for schooling.

Participation in District level Drama competition: We also motivated PRERANA children to participate in district level drama completion

Sunday Fun for children: this month we have organized four Sunday Workshops for the children to teach them yoga and sports.

PRERANA planning & monitoring meet:

More details please visit: www.workforequality.org / facebook.com/workforequality