

Work for equality - "WE" - A step towards equal opportunities

Monthly Newsletter - January 2017

Work for Equality is a registered NGO working for the benefits of the marginalized communities in the areas of education, health, livelihood & Gender

Achievement of this month:

We Celebrated Savitribai Phule Jayanti as a Balika Din with Dehuphata PRERANA center children and started books library for the children. We inaugurated the program by Maya the girl who readmitted in the school last month

Work for Equality has felicitated by

Maaval Pratishan and Umabai Dabhade Pratishthan with "SARSENAPATI" award for our social contribution by wife of MLA Mr. Bala Bhegade.

Work for Equality associated with Savitribai Phule Pune University - Department of Department of Adult continuing Education and extension has facilitated one day workshop for rural collage going youth on "understand lifelong educational needs of rural youth" through the workshop we got ideas about youth needs for their educational, social and economic development.

More details please visit: www.workforequality.org / facebook.com/workforequality
80 G Exemption and FCRA

PRERANA Children celebrated birthday in their own center, which they have never gone through the experience.

Sunday Fun for children: this month we have organized four Sunday Workshops for the children to teach them yoga and sports.

Staff capacity building training program: the month of JAN two staff participated in three days training program on health organized by SNEHA and two staff were participated in two days residential training program organized by ALOCHANA NGO on "INCLUSION", where they got experience to meet with representative of minorities and understand their concerns.

Participated in National Urban Health mission training program:

Article in "Chuli Palyad" published by ALOCHANA NGO monthly Newsletter

